Video game sales analysis

- 1.Introduction

  1.1 Overview :

  Video games are popular all over the world. They are enjoyed by all ages. Video game industry is huge and the spending on video games per year is huge too. Sales of different types of games vary widely between countries due to local preferences. According to the market research firm SuperData, as of may 2015,the global games market was worth USD 74.2 billion. By region, North America accounted for 23.6 billion, Asia 23.1 billion, Europe 22.1 billion & South America 4.5 billion dollars.

Our Goal

In this the main goal was to analyse the sales of video games in different regions. The regions are North America, Europe, Japan, other countries(combined) and then the global sales(total of all the regions)

1.2 Purpose

The video game industry encompasses the development, marketing, and monetization of video games. The industry encompasses dozens of job disciplines and thousands of jobs worldwide.

4.Advantages and disadvantages

4.1There are several advantages to video game sales:

- Profitability: The video game industry is a multi-billion dollar industry, with the potential for high profit margins.
- Job creation: The video game industry employs a large number of people, including game developers, graphic designers, programmers, and testers, creating job opportunities in various fields.
- Technological advancements: The demand for better graphics and gameplay has led to the development of advanced hardware and software technologies, which can be used in other industries.
- Cultural impact: Video games have become an important part of popular culture, and their sales help to support the development of new games and franchises that can further contribute to this cultural impact.
- Entertainment value: Video games offer a unique form of entertainment that can be enjoyed by people of all ages and backgrounds, providing a fun and engaging way to spend time

4.2 There are also some disadvantages to video game sales:

- Addiction: Some people can become addicted to video games, leading to negative impacts on their health, relationships, and overall well-being.
- Violence and aggression: Some studies have suggested a link between violent video games and increased aggression in players, particularly in children and adolescents.
- Health risks: Playing video games for extended periods of time can lead to a sedentary lifestyle and associated health risks such as obesity, eye strain, and carpal tunnel syndrome.
- Cost: Video games can be expensive to purchase, particularly if players want to access additional content through downloadable content or microtransactions.
- Online safety: Online multiplayer games can pose risks to player safety, including exposure to inappropriate content, cyberbullying, and online predators.

5.Applications

Video game sales have several applications in different fields, including:

- ✓ Entertainment: Video games are primarily used for entertainment purposes, offering players an immersive and engaging experience.
- ✓ Education: Video games are increasingly being used in educational settings to help students learn and develop new skills in subjects such as math, science, and history.
- ✓ Training: Video games are also used in training and simulation programs for various industries, including military, aviation, and healthcare.
- ✓ Rehabilitation: Video games have been used in physical and cognitive rehabilitation programs to help patients recover from injuries or neurological conditions.

- ✓ Marketing: Video games can be used as a marketing tool to promote products and brands to a younger audience, particularly through in-game advertisements and product placements

- ✓ Social and community building: Video games can be used to bring people together, both online and in-person, through shared interests and common goals.

Overall, the applications of video game sales are vast and varied, offering opportunities for entertainment, education, training, rehabilitation, marketing, and community building.

6.Conclusion

After during the project, we have realised the Challenges faced with video game sales and more about the gaming.
Hence we conclude the video game sales marketing.

7.Future Scope

The future of video game sales looks very promising. According to a report by New zoo, the global video game industry is expected to reach $217.9 billion in revenue by 2023, up from $159.3 billion in 2020. This growth is being driven by the increasing popularity of esports, mobile gaming, and the rise of virtual reality and augmented reality gaming.

8. Appendix
